1. ROBERT<sup>1</sup> DODGSON died in Paythorne. He married ELLEN BROWNE June 6, 1633 in Long Preston, daughter of JOHN BROWNE and MARGARET. She was born in Paythorne, and died in Paythorne.

Notes for ROBERT DODGSON:

Will of Robert Dodgson - In the name of God, Amen. The third day of March 1676 I Robert Dodgson of Paythorne in the parish of Gisburn and the county of York yeoman being sick in body and whole in mind but of perfect remembrance God be Praised. First and principally I committ and bequeath my soul into the hands of Almighty God my Maker hoping by the Passion and Merits of Jesus Christ my Saviour to have free pardon and full remission of all my sins and my body to be buried in the parish church of Gisburn aforesaid at the discretion of my friends. Now as touching my worldly estate I disose thereof as followeth. And first my will and mind is that John Dodgson my eldest son shall have the land that I had by my wife and the tenement holden by lease under Mr. Walmsley after my wife's decease. I will he shall have that in case he join with her at paying of the fine (sic). Item I give to Margaret and Ellen Dodgson daughters of Christopher Dodgson to whom I am grandfather either of them 50 shillings a year giving a lawful discharge to the executors for the same. Item I give to George and Ellen Wilkinson son and daughter of William Wilkinson of Horton Hall deceased to whom I am grandfather either 50 shillings a year giving a lawful discharge to the executor for the same. And lastly I do ordain and make Ellen Dodgson my wife my sole executrix of this my last will and testament.

The above named Robert Dodgson did this day and year above said expressed and declared those words above mentioned or words to the same effect being then of perfect memory to be his last will and testament.

Witnesses Christopher Dodgson and Robert Dodgson.

So who was this Robert? It is tempting to think that he is the Robert baptised in 1605 at Gisburn, but another Robert Dodgson will from around the same time makes me think that this isn't the case. In the registers before the birth of Robert and Ellen's children, Dodgsons are usually referred to as "of Newsholme" or they have no place name ascribed to them. The only exception to this is the burial of the widow Dodgson of Paythorne dated 27th February 1614/5. The fact that she is called the widow Dodgson rather than being given a name or having her late husband's name mentioned makes me think that she had been a widow for quite some time and had perhaps long been referred to in that manner. Could she have been Robert's mother? I'm sure that Robert must tie in to the Newsholme Dodgsons but quite how is not yet clear. The early Gisburn registers are incomplete. It is interesting that the Newsholme Dodgsons seem to disappear from Gisburn. One, John, goes to Southfield in Colne but where do the others go? Subsequent Dodgsons in the Registers all descend from Robert and Ellen. In other records there is mention of a William Dodgson in Paythorne before Robert. Some information about him follows -

2. CHRISTOPHER<sup>2</sup> DODGSON (ROBERT<sup>1</sup>) was born 1650 in Paythorne, and died January 1730/31 in Ellenthorpe, Gisburn. She was born 1649 in Paythorne, and died February 1728/29 in Ellenthorpe, Gisburn.

Notes for CHRISTOPHER DODGSON:

At Ellenthorp Farm there are two houses. One has a datestone above the door with the initials CD and the date 1679. Inside the CD is a larger E. Mirroring the pattern at Paa Farm and Windy Pike with Robert and Agnes Dodgson and Christopher and Agnes Lancaster respectively I believe this stone to have been placed by Christopher Dodgson and his wife Elizabeth above the door of what was then known as Ellingthorpe Grange. The various wills and memorials relating to this particular family are fascinating. In 1711, first son Robert is the heir apparent. By the time of his father's will in 1728 though things have obviously gone wrong between the two.

Notes for CHRISTOPHER DODGSON:

There is no will as such left by Christopher but at the Borthwick Institute there is an admon which is fairly limited. In the parish registers of Gargrave where Christopher was vicar for many years the vicar who replaced him bemoans the fact that Christopher had been given large sums of money to repair and update the vicarage but had not spent a penny. Further even though Christopher had died the vicar says he has seen none of this money. Christopher's widow, Dorothy, a descendant of the Fountain family of Linton in Craven had speedily left Gargrave for Skipton, no doubt with the repair money!! There are various memorials relating to her and the sale of property after this. One in Hellifield and two in Long Preston. These highlight that she had at some point moved to Kirkby Lonsdale in what was Westmoreland and then from there to Lancaster and then Leeds where one Christopher Fountain also mentioned in one of the memorials and probably her brother is described as a woollen draper. The references at Wakefield are RR 700 932, TT 523 676, TT 524 677, AU 236 316. The witnesses to the Hellifield and Long Preston sales to Stephen Hammerton were Thomas Jenkinson of Kirkby Lonsdale gentleman, Lawrence Carr of Settle yeoman and Edward Salisbury of Newton gentleman. The later sale was witnessed by Christopher Fountain of Leeds woollen draper James Donaldson of Leeds grocer and Ann Jagger of Leeds spinster. A fuller memorial EE 597 874 made after the will of Christopher senior follows:

Notes for CAPTAIN, 4TH DRAGOON GUAR CHARLES DODGSON:

A captain in the Dragoon Guards, Charles was murdered by rebels associated with Robert Emmott. Sensing a trap he wrote his will just before setting out on the mission that was to be his last. The will follows

Should any accident befall me which by the nature of my profession and the circumstances of the times as well as the uncertainty at all times attending human life is much within the scale of probability, I leave these sheets as my last will and testament. I consign my sole to my gracious and all merciful maker, humbly imploring his pardon for the transgressions of my life and trusting that by repentance through the ..... of my Saviour I may be made partaker of everlasting ..... and earnestly beseech my beloved wife Lucy Dodgson not to suffer herself to grieve immoderately for my death but to look upon our dear children the pledges of our affections as still uniting us and by continuing her maternal love to them to consider that she is thereby in the best manner cherishing my memory. Should she marry again which far be it from me to wish to restrain her from if she finds a man worthy of her (a heart more warmly attached to her than that which dictates these lines she never can find), I request her to consider the interests of our dear children aforesaid in securing for them the little property she and they derive from me that they may not suffer from the caprice which sometimes influences the best of men and which is not infrequently observed in the conduct of a man to the children of his wife by a former marriage. After the payment of my just debts, I leave the whole of my property to my beloved wife aforesaid for her natural life and afterwards to my dear children and recommend to her most earnestly to consult in every transaction her worthy and good father whose affection and advice I feel she may rely on as a secure Guide.

I entreat her to pardon any faults she may have observed in me towards her and to accept my warmest gratitude for her tried affection, her virtues as a wife and mother to my children and as a friend in which characters her irreproachable conduct has constituted the happiness of my life since the day which blessed me in being united to her.

To my dear children I bequeath, together with my blessing, the most invaluable legacy the affection of their inestimable mother to whose care I took the greatest happiness in confiding them. Had I millions I should make the same disposition being solemnly reassured that my beloved Lucy will arrange their property more to their advantage than I could do in my present hurry when going very shortly on a duty, the last perhaps that will fall to my lot to perform to my King and Country. Should this be the case my last breath will call down every blessing from the Almighty on my aforesaid beloved wife and children whom I trust I shall meet in a happier state. I request my most revered friend and father (in law), James Hume Esq, will accept my most grateful thanks for his unceasing kindness to me and I entreat his pardon for any faults he may have observed in me. I trust he will still have the goodness to continue his affection to my dear wife and children. The same request I make to him and the same tender of my gratitude I offer to his kind and amiable Lady the mother of my dear wife who by her kindness to me has acted in a similar character to me. I beg my dear sisters-in-law will accept my grateful thanks for their goodness to me and in this I particularly address to my sister-in-law, Menella, who by her constant attention and fondness shown to my dear wife and children has left an indelible impression on my mind. To my own brother and sister I request it may be communicated that I leave them my blessing and hearty thanks for their affection to me. I have been unfortunately separated much from the society of my dear brother, Percy, by our different avocations but he has never for a moment ceased to be the object of my sincere affection. To my dear sister, Elizabeth, I offer my best thanks in particular for the sincere interest she always took in my affairs and for the advice she often gave me which whether it accorded with my sentiments or not has an equal ..... to my gratitude as it proceeded from affection. I request she and my old friend, her husband, will accept my most fervent prayers and wishes for their happiness both here and hereafter. I forgive all my enemies should I have any and should it be my lot to fall by the sword of any misled or deluded poor creature, which in this country it is not impossible. I pardon him my death and entreat pardon for him from the Almighty to whose protection I commit all my friends, my relatives, my dear children and her who will be the object of my last prayers and blessings my beloved and inestimable wife humbly imploring that when we have finished this mortal corpse, we may meet in endless felicity hereafter through Jesus Christ our most blessed Saviour and Redeemer who died for us and by whose merits we are saved.

I entreat my revered friend, Mr Hume, will take care that what relates to my property in these sheets may be arranged for my dear wife with as little trouble for her as possible.

And with regard to the surplus of such rents together with the residue of my personal estate hereinbefore bequeathed to my said trustees in trust that they shall pay and keep down the interest of any money which may be owing from me at the time of my death or which may be borrowed and taken up at interest by them in executions of the trusts of this my last will and pay and apply the surplus of such rents from time to time in liquidation of such debts as far as the same will extend until the same shall be paid off and discharged and upon that event I do hereby order and direct my said trustees and executors to pay over such surplus rents (after retaining what may from time to time be necessary for keeping the said estates in tenantable repair) unto my said daughter and her assigns for and during the term of her natural life in addition to the annuity of twenty pounds hereinbefore given to her payable half yearly at the days and times aforesaid with the like powers of entry and distress in case of non payment as are given to her regarding her said annuity of twenty pounds. And so as any such lease be not made with an exemption from punishment for waste. Provided likewise and I do hereby declare and direct that in case either of my said trustees their heirs executors or administrators upon whom the trusts aforesaid shall devolve shall die or be desirous to be discharged from such trusts or shall refuse to act or become incapable of acting therein before the same shall be carried into execution it shall be lawful for the continuing or acting trustee for the time being to appoint one or more trustee or trustees in the room or stead of either of the said trustees who shall happen to die or be desirous to be discharged from the said trusts or refuse to act or become incapable of acting therein as aforesaid. The last will and testament of me Thomas Dodgson late of Paythorn but now of Gisburn in the County of York yeoman made and published the 10th day of July in the year of our Lord 1833 hereby revoking all former wills by me made. First it is my will and mind and I do hereby order and direct that all my just debts, funeral expenses and the expense of proving and registering this my last will shall be paid out of my personal estate not hereinafter specifically bequeathed as far as the same shall extend and the remainder out of the rents or profits or by sale or mortgage of some part of my real estates at the discretion of my trustees and executors. Then I give and bequeath unto my wife Agnes Dodgson and my daughter and only child Ann Dodgson all my household goods and furniture, plate, china and linen for their own use. And whereas I am seized or otherwise well entitled to an undivided moiety of an estate situate at Knotts and within and part and parcel of the late dissolved monastery of Salley otherwise Sawley in the county of York in the occupation of Christopher Wood or his undertenants. And whereas I am otherwise seized or well entitled to an undivided moiety of an estate called Howsa Gap in the township of Paythorne aforesaid with the cottages buildings lands grounds hereditaments and premises to the same belonging in the occupation of John Thornber and others and their undertenants. Now it is my will and mind and I do hereby give and devise my undivided moiety of such estates and all other my estate and effects whatsoever and wheresoever and of what nature or kind soever whereof I may die possessed (except my household goods and furniture hereinbefore bequeathed to my wife and daughter) unto my relations John Lancaster of Paythorn in the county of York yeoman and Robert Lancaster of Settle in the county of York ironmonger and their heirs executors and administrators according to the nature and tenure of such estates and premises. Nevertheless upon the trusts and to and for the uses intents and purposes hereinafter mentioned (that is to say). In trust that they the said John Lancaster and Robert Lancaster and the survivor of them and his heirs executors and administrators shall and do receive and take the rents and profits of the said estates and premises and thereout pay to my said wife and her assigns during her natural life in case she shall continue my widow but not otherwise one annuity or clear yearly rent charge or sum of twenty pounds of lawful English money by two equal half yearly payments on the twelfth day of May and the twenty second day of November in each year the first payment to begin and be made on such of those days as shall happen next after my decease with the usual powers of entry and distress in case of non-payment for the space of twenty eight days next after the same shall become due and payable being lawfully demanded. And which said annuity to my said wife shall be in lieu and full satisfaction of any dower or thirds or any other claim which she my said wife can or may have or claim from or out of my said estates or any part thereof. And also that they my said trustees and executors shall and do from and out of the rents and profits of my said estates pay unto my said daughter and her assigns for and during the term of her natural life one other annuity or clear yearly rent charge or sum of twenty pounds of like lawful money by two equal half yearly payments on the days and times aforesaid the first payment to begin and be made on such of those days as shall first happen after my decease with the like powers of entry and distress in case of non payment as are given to my said wife regarding her said annuity. And it is my will and mind and I do hereby expressly order and direct that the said annuity or yearly rent charge given to my said daughter shall be from time to time paid into her own proper hands and shall not be subject or liable to the debts control or engagement of any husband she may marry and her receipts alone notwithstanding her coverture shall be good and effectual discharges to my said trustees for the same to all intents and purposes whatsoever. And with regard to the surplus of such rents together with the residue of my personal estate hereinbefore bequeathed to my said trustees in trust that they shall pay and keep down the interest of any money which may be owing from me at the time of my death or which may be borrowed and taken up at interest by them in executions of the trusts of this my last will and pay and apply the surplus of such rents from time to time in liquidation of such debts as far as the same will extend until the same shall be paid off and discharged and upon that event I do hereby order and direct my said trustees and executors to pay over such surplus rents (after retaining what may from time to time be necessary for keeping the said estates in tenantable repair) unto my said daughter and her assigns for and during the term of her natural life in addition to the annuity of twenty pounds hereinbefore given to her payable half yearly at the days and times aforesaid with the like powers of entry and distress in case of non payment as are given to her regarding her said annuity of twenty pounds. And it is my will and mind and I do hereby expressly order and direct that the said surplus monies so given to my said daughter shall be from time to time paid into her own proper hands and shall not be subject or liable to the debts control or engagements of any husband with whom she may marry and her receipts alone notwithstanding her coverture shall be good and effectual discharges to my said trustees for the same to all intents and purposes whatsoever. And from and after the decease of my said daughter in trust that my said trustees and the survivor of them and his heirs executors and administrators shall continue to receive the rents and profits of my said estates (and subject to the payment of the said annuity to my said wife if she be then living and continue unmarried but not otherwise) to pay and apply such clear yearly rents and profits or so much and such parts thereof as they in their discretion shall think proper and necessary in the maintenance clothing education and bringing up of all the children which shall be lawfully begotten on the body of my said daughter until the youngest of such children shall attain the age of 21 years. And from and after the youngest of such children shall have attained the age of 21 years I do hereby give and devise all my said real estates unto and equally amongst all and every the son and sons lawfully begotten on the body of my said daughter if more than one share and share alike and to their respective heirs and assigns forever as tenants in common and not as joint tenants in exclusion of any female issue of my said daughter. right heirs provided always and it is my will and mind and I do hereby order direct and empower my said trustees if they shall see occasion either by sale or mortgage of such parts of my said estates as they in their discretion shall think proper to raise such a sum or sums of money as shall be necessary to pay such of my debts as my personal estate devised to them and the surplus of the rents and profits of my real estate shall be found insufficient to discharge. And that it shall and may be lawful to and for my said trustees and the survivor of them and his heirs executors or administrators or any trustee or trustees to be appointed as hereinafter mentioned to sign and give receipts for such purchase or mortgage money which shall be a good and absolute discharge to the person or persons advancing and paying such monies. And that such person or persons advancing and paying the same shall not be bound or ..... to see to the application thereof nor to enquire into the expediency or necessity of raising the same nor answerable for any loss or misapplication thereof. Provided also and I do hereby declare it to be my will and direct that it shall and may be lawful to and for my said trustees and the survivor of them his heirs executors or administrators or any succeeding trustee or trustees to be appointed as hereinafter mentioned to demise and lease for the common purposes of occupation all or any part of my said real estates for any term not exceeding 11 years to take effect in possession so as upon every such lease there be reserved the best and most improved yearly rents that can be reasonably had for the same. And so as any such lease be not made with an exemption from punishment for waste. Provided likewise and I do hereby declare and direct that in case either of my said trustees their heirs executors or administrators upon whom the trusts aforesaid shall devolve shall die or be desirous to be discharged from such trusts or shall refuse to act or become incapable of acting therein before the same shall be carried into execution it shall be lawful for the continuing or acting trustee for the time being to appoint one or more trustee or trustees in the room or stead of either of the said trustees who shall happen to die or be desirous to be discharged from the said trusts or refuse to act or become incapable of acting therein as aforesaid. And upon such appointment my said estates shall be conveyed to and vested in such trustee or trustees so to be appointed and the remaining or my acting trustee for the time being upon the trusts herein before mentioned or such of them as shall be then existing or capable of taking effect. And that every such new trustee or trustees shall in all things assist in the said trusts in conjunction with the remaining trustee for the time being as effectually to all intents and purposes as if he or they had been originally appointed a trustee or trustees in this my will. Provided further and I do declare it to be my will and direct that my said trustees their heirs executors and administrators and all such future trustees so to be appointed as aforesaid or any of them shall retain and reimburse themselves out of the trust monies and premises all such costs charges and expenses as he or they shall sustain expend or be put unto in execution of the trusts hereby in them reposed. And have a reasonable allowance for their care and trouble herein nor shall they or any of them be answerable for more money than shall actually come to their respective hands nor the one for the other of them but each of them with or for his own proper acts deeds receipts and defaults only their joining in receipts for conformity's sake not withstanding nor for any loss or damage which may happen in execution of the trusts aforesaid or in relation thereto except the same shall happen by or through their own wilful default or neglect. Notes for MARY ANN HARRISON:

Mary Ann Harrison was born on the 26th October 1846 at five past one in the morning at the family home - 103, Grimshaw Park, Blackburn. She was baptised later that same day at the parish church in Blackburn, St. Mary the Virgin. Mary Ann was a twin, her twin sister, Susannah was also baptised on that day but does not appear to have survived. Mary Ann was the daughter of William Harrison who was a mechanic and his wife Ellen, nee Haworth. William signed to register the birth on the 16th of November that year. Her father William had been born around 1813 in Chorley. He was the son of Thomas and Mary Harrison. William worked as a mechanic - a skill that would be very prized and highly valued given the increasingly complex machinery that was brought in as the industrial revolution gathered momentum. It was also a skill that was to be passed on to other family members. Ellen was born in Blackburn around 1816. She worked as a cotton weaver

William and Ellen had several other children. The eldest child listed in the census returns for Blackburn is their son John who was born in Blackburn around 1838. By 1851, John was still listed as a scholar. By 1861, when the family had moved to 6, Clayton St, a grocer's shop, he was listed as a mechanic like his father. By 1881 John had moved to Preston where he was living with his wife Margaret Ann who had been born in Hull. They were living at 1 and 2 Lord's Walk. I wonder if that too was a shop? Five sons were living with them - Doctor aged 11 and born in Blackburn, John and Frederick aged 9 and 5 respectively and both born in Withnell, and Thomas and Charles aged 3 and 10 months respectively and both born in Preston. Also living with them was John's mother, Ellen, now a widow.

William and Ellen's next oldest child in the census returns is William born 1843 in Blackburn. A scholar in 1851, he is listed as an 18 year old moulder in 1861. I believe that he was subsequently to leave Blackburn and that he is the person listed in the 1881 census living at 452, Warrington Rd Ince in Makerfield, where his occupation is listed as fruiter and iron moulder, no doubt carrying on the Harrison entrepreneurial dynasty. His wife is 31 year old Isabella born in Cockerham. Two children are listed - six year old Thomas born in Lancaster, and three year old Lucy born in Abram

The next child of William and Ellen is listed as Thomas who was born in Blackburn around 1845. A scholar in 1851 he is listed as a cotton weaver in 1861.

After Mary Ann the next of William and Ellen's children is listed as Susannah born around 1849 again in Blackburn. By 1861 she was listed as a cotton weaver. No Susannah Harrison of the appropriate age appears on the 1881 census returns for Lancashire. It could be that she had moved but more likely I think she would have married or possibly even died.

Ellen born around 1857 in Blackburn is the final child of the marriage listed on early census returns.

Mary Ann's father William was one of several children of Thomas and Mary Harrison nee Kenyon, who had married in the parish church in Chorley on the 23rd July 1807. Thomas had been born in Thornton in Craven in Yorkshire and he was baptised in the parish church there on the 2nd of November 1777, the son of Elisha and Susannah Harrison. He had worked as a cotton spinner and then at one had run a business known as Houghton and Harrison. After that he ran Harrison's Public House at the bottom of Grimshaw Park for many years. I believe this pub became known as The Good Samaritan and may have stayed within the family - certainly one Ellen Harrison was running it in 1871. Thomas' wife Mary had been born around 1783. I have not checked parish registers so I don't have full details of their children, just those listed on census returns or on the family gravestone. I feel sure there must have been some older children whose details I don't yet have. The family grave stone lists four children who died quite early - Elisha their son who had been baptised in Chorley on the 26th of March 1815 and who died on September 2nd 1821, Nancy their daughter who died exactly one week later aged 2, a second Nancy who died on July 28th 1827 aged 11 months, and finally their son John who died on September 10th 1834 aged 25. The 1841 census records two other children - Thomas, and Elisha. Also listed living there is Mary, the widow of son John, and Mary and John's two children Richard, who was born on the 26th of September 1832 and baptised on the 25th of November 1832, and Nancy. Finally, listed as 15, comes Ann Harrison who is described as a servant. Whether she is a relative is not clear.

Thomas' wife Mary died on the 22nd October 1844 at the family home in Grimshaw Park. The cause of death is listed as inflammation of the chest. She is described as the wife of Thomas Harrison, an inn keeper. Thomas who had been present at the death registered the sad event. By 1851, Thomas was living at 60, Clayton St, where he is listed as a 74 year old widower whose occupation is given as "owner of houses". Living with him was his son Thomas, a 28 year old mechanic. By 1861 Thomas and his son had moved to 25B Jackcroft, Thomas snr. listed as a Gentleman, his son as a machinist.

Thomas' son Elisha had by this time been married, widowed and left with a young son Richard. By 1861 Elisha and his son had moved to live with his brother William at the grocer's shop in Clayton St. By 1881 Elisha had moved to 5 Egbert St in Preston. He is listed as a mechanic model maker. I wonder if his home was also a shop where he sold his models? He had remarried to Agnes who had been born in 1834 in Kendal and who was a cotton winder. Nineteen year old James who had been born in Blackburn was listed as an apprentice model maker

Thomas' grandson Richard had by 1861 moved to 6, Pitt St. where he was living with his wife Margaret and one month old daughter Nancy. Richard was listed as a mechanic - the Harrisons held the corner on this in Blackburn!! Richard's wife Margaret had been born in Blackburn around 1838. By 1871, the family had moved to 22, Howard St., presumably a public house since Richard is listed as a beerseller and mechanic. Nancy was by now a scholar and she had three younger siblings - John aged 5, Mary aged 3, and 2 month old William.

Thomas Harrison sadly died on April 21st 1863 at his home, Jackcroft. His son Thomas of the same address who had been present at the death was the informant. The cause of death is listed as chronic bronchitis He was buried with his wife Mary and four of their children in the churchyard of what was St John's in Blackburn. The gravestone is still there on the James St side of the churchyard just across the road from what is now Keith Brown accountants. The stone reads as follows

Sacred to the memory of THOMAS HARRISON who departed this life April 21st 1863 aged 86 years, also MARY the wife of Thomas Harrison who departed this life October 22nd 1844 aged 61 years, also ELISHA the son of Thos and MARY Harrison of Blackburn. Innkeeper, who departed this life September

2nd 1821 in the 7th year of his age, also of NANCY their daughter who departed this life September 9th 1821 in the second year of her age, also of NANCY their daughter who departed this life July 28th 1827 aged 11 months, likewise of JOHN their son who departed this life September 10th 1834 in the 25th year of his age

Look on this stone O man as thou goest by
Reflect on Death for thou must surely die
Those eyes of thine which read this Sacred stone
Must soon like mine be obscur'd and gone
I've paid the Tribute which to Nature due
That debt must likewise soon be paid by you

Buried in the next grave to Thomas, and also commemorated on the stone are his grandson Richard who died on January 21st 1902 aged 69 and Richard's wife Margaret who died on the 15th of November 1897 aged 61

Notes for FRANCIS DODGSON:
Educated at Marlborough College and after being rejected by army on account of eyesight Trinity College Cambridge. Joined family stockbroking firm of Hope Dodgson but commissioned September 1914 and went to France the following August. Promoted Captain in May 1916 in command of B company in first major engagement of the Battle of the Somme. A private Angus wrote home "Captain Dodgson was leading and encouraging his men like an old veteran" when he was shot dead. He had been due to marry Marjorie Secretan on his next leave. Buried where he had been killed his mother hadn't wanted the grave moved. It was though, but she went over to France and had a gravestone placed on the spot of his death. His original wooden cross is now in Salisbury Cathedral together with that of his brother Captain Guy Dodgson. Despite having a grave Francis is also remembered high up on the Thiepval Memorial to the Missing. The stone on the spot of his death was moved some 90 yards to its present spot by the track in 1962 after the field was sold.
